Virtue of the Month - Temperance

Temperance, one of the four Cardinal virtues, is defined to be moderate in the pleasure and use of created goods.

It ensures the will's mastery over instincts and keeps desires within the limits of what is honorable.

Essentially, it's about practicing moderation and self-control in all aspects of life.

Temperance in Action

- Eating in moderation
- Managing your time wisely
- Controlling your emotions
- Resisting temptations
- Limiting your technology exposure
- Focusing on God in all things

Temperance is a disposition that restrains our desires for things which it is base to desire.

- Saint Augustine
